more than a preschool - a community

Seeking Part-Time Preschool Teacher for 2018-19 School Year

Wedgwood Cooperative Preschool is now accepting teacher applications for its Toddlers class and Pre-3s class for the 2018-19 school year. The teacher collaborates with a North Seattle College (NSC) Parent Educator Instructor, who provides instruction and guidance to the parents and works in the classroom two hours per week. The class meeting times are listed below. We are open to the possibility of one teacher to take on both classes but also the idea of hiring two applicants, one for each class. Please specify your preference.

TODDLERS: Fridays 9-11am

PRE-3s: Mondays 9:30-11:30am & Friday 11:30am-1:30pm

Teacher attends one board meeting per month as well as a monthly evening parent meeting for each class.

Also plan for time to collaborate with your co-teachers & parent educators

Desired Qualifications:

- A college degree in a related field or an AA in Early Childhood Education
- Prior experience teaching preschool-age children
- Previous cooperative school experience preferred
- Music has been an important part of our school community, if you have a musical talent to share please tell us about it. Singing is a central tool in the classroom.

Benefits:

- A competitive salary based on education and previous experience
- Nine month schedule that follows the Seattle Public Schools schedule for breaks
- Paid sick days and holidays
- Opportunities for professional development through classes/seminars paid for by the Cooperative
- Ample inventory of engaging supplies and equipment
- Inviting outdoor play space
